Dear admiral Turner

It was a great joy and sotisfaction to kinear that we had a poort in your development. He realize your position is very vital, and yet involves risk and is highly vulnerable. You have our prayers for the success of your organization and for your own protection.

Thank you for Sending us a copy of your recent speech to the Newai Academy. It is a heart warming pleasure to know that you are corrying to the young men of the Naval Academy. The same challenge and inspiration which you say my hus band gave to you

Sincercly, Join Ellott
